8 December 1958

Dear Jack:

Confirming our telephone conversation of 4 December 1958, you are requested to adopt the policies set forth below with regard to inquiries or reporting of our contracts insofar as they apply to the General Accounting Office or Renegotiation Act or Board.

1. Your Contract No. RT-100 or any subcontracts thereunder are not subject to examination by the GAO and should not be reported. Any inquiries received by you or your subcontractors should be made known to us immediately.
2. Your Contract No. RT-100 or any subcontract thereunder is also exempt from the Renegotiation Act and accordingly, should not be reported as being subject to this Act. When reporting under the Renegotiation Act, our contract should be included in that portion of your report on other business which is not subject to the Act. Please advise your subcontractors to follow this practice also. If there are any inquiries, please advise us immediately.

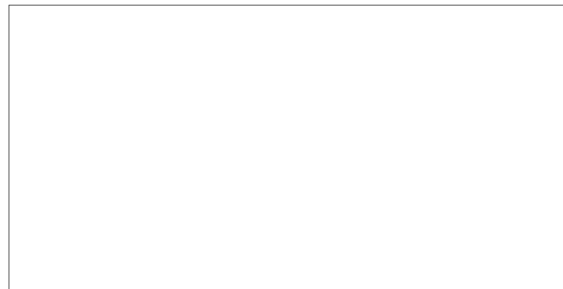

Very truly yours,

Dan
